

DIRECTOR OF OUTDOOR EDUCATION

Founded in 1983, Trinity Anglican School (TAS) is located in the growing regional city of Cairns, Far North Queensland. It is a highly regarded independent school based on Anglican values but with a school community that values diversity. TAS achieves enviable academic results and our graduates are highly sought after.

We are seeking a suitably qualified, dynamic and innovative outdoor educator to lead our highly regarded Outdoor Education program. The Outdoor Education program at TAS runs from Year 2 through to Year 12, with Year 2 introduced to a night away from home, through to an 18-day journey for Year 9, and the Year 12 leadership retreat.

The setting for the program is the diverse yet beautiful natural environment of Far North Queensland. The program provides personal challenges, encourages participation, fosters leadership skills and develops traits of community responsibility, cooperation, resourcefulness, resilience and teamwork.

We are looking for a leader who will coordinate and further develop a progressive and stimulating program of Outdoor Education and integrate this into the breadth of the educational experience available to students at TAS. This person will also develop and implement a whole school strategy on Outdoor Education and be able to build, lead and support a team of staff to deliver this high quality Outdoor Education program.
