

HEAD OF JUNIOR SCHOOL

Founded in 1983, Trinity Anglican School (TAS) is located in the growing regional city of Cairns, Far North Queensland. It is a highly regarded independent school based on Anglican values but with a school community that values diversity. TAS achieves enviable academic results and our graduates are highly sought after.

We are seeking a suitably qualified, dynamic and innovative educator to lead our Junior School into its next phase of development.

As a member of the Senior Leadership Team, the Head of Junior School will lead a team of enthusiastic, dedicated staff in the continued growth and development of our P-6 learning community.

We are looking for a leader who will motivate and inspire staff and students to strive to reach their personal best. The successful applicant will:

- Encourage programs that develop 21st century skills such as critical and creative thinking, problem-solving and inquiry learning, coding and robotics
- Understand the developmental stages of the junior years, with experience in developing curriculum and age-appropriate pedagogical approaches
- Build links with parents and the wider Cairns community
- Further develop the pastoral program and the well-being of staff and students

Details of this exciting opportunity and a Position Description are available on request by calling the Principal's PA, Ms Joy Dinsey on 07 4036 8103 or visiting www.tas.qld.edu.au

Applications should include:

- Covering Letter
- Resume
- Details of three referees
- A document of no more than 2 pages addressing the key selection criteria

Please address applications to:
Mr Paul Sjogren, Principal
Trinity Anglican School
PO Box 110E, Earlvile Q 4870
or email to principal@tas.qld.edu.au

Applications close on Friday, 25 August 2017 at 5:00pm AEST.