

Alumni Profile

Tammy Williams

Formerly Ewen-Smith

Class of 1999

Completed Years 1 to 12 at TAS

Where are you now?

"I am a director/shareholder of O'Connor Law, a law firm in Cairns.

O'Connor Law opened in 2008 and I was made a director in July this year, having worked for the firm since 2008. I work in the area of commercial law encompassing property, estate planning, corporate and business law."

What is your career highlight to date?

"Becoming a director/shareholder in July 2019."

What advice would you give to young people wanting to enter a similar profession?

"Talk to people who know the industry. Get as much experience within a law firm environment as you can. Even if this means answering phones and filing whilst you are studying. Ask ask ask! There is no such thing as a stupid question."

What is your most memorable moment at TAS?

"Many! The 3-week camp in Grade 9 certainly stands out! Becoming school captain for 1999. Many of the school musicals, fashion parades and the like."

What advice would you give to current TAS students?

"Make the most of the opportunities available to you and remember that the TAS family extends further than you what sometimes think!"
